

Application to Le Four à pain

Two artistic fields:

WRITING

Deliberately open to all types of writing, the residencies welcome fiction writers, poets, translators, playwrights, screenwriters, lyricists, humorists, historians, philosophers... and remain accessible to other disciplines for which writing is central.

The FINE ARTS in the broadest sense: photographers, video artists, visual artists, painters, sculptors, graphic artists, designers...

To submit your application, please send us:

- a letter of application specifying the time of year you are available
- a bio-bibliography
- a link to the digital version of a published work or sending an extract in pdf format
- a precise note of intent on the creative project

Applications can be submitted throughout the calendar year.
